

As you know, many of our St. Henry families have been affected by recent flooding.

Below are some links and information for assistance and volunteer efforts.

Sister Ann Hyacinth and the faculty and staff of Saint Henry School are keeping you in our prayers.

Please go to <http://charitableconstructors.com/st-henrys-flood-relief-volunteer-efforts/> if you are in need of assistance or if you are able to volunteer your help in any way.

Items available in the Parish Center

St. Henry Church has non-perishable foods, toiletries, cleaning supplies, clothing (infant, children, and adult sizes), and miscellaneous items available to those in need. Just come by the church office (or send a friend) from 8:00am to 4:00pm Monday through Friday to pick up what is needed.

Need clothes washed?

There will be a Tide Loads for Hope truck at the Dollar General Store at 2403 Lebanon Pike, Nashville, TN 37214 on May 12th from 8am to 6pm. The Tide Loads for Hope Trucks come to cities and town with high efficiency washers and dryers for disaster assistance. The Tide staff will literally wash, dry, and fold each load of clothes.

Saint Henry School uniforms

If you are in need of used Saint Henry school uniforms, please contact Sue Conley at 352-1328.

Donations

If you would like to make a donation to help Saint Henry School and Parish families affected by the floods, please make your check payable to Saint Henry. On the memo line write in Flood Relief. If you would like to donate gift cards, cards to stores that carry a variety of items such as Target, Wal-Mart, and Bed Bath & Beyond would be appreciated. Please send your donations to school marked "Flood relief".

People affected can now go to the FEMA.org website or 1-800-621-FEMA to register for assistance. TN disaster #1909

One additional important note to make sure everyone affected knows and we cannot stress enough: Take lots of pictures AND keep all receipts.
